

April 17, 1940.

Mr. A. Phailstock,
222 West 135th St.,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Phailstock:

Since returning to Newark I have been thinking over my Opening day program and decided I better write you and tell you the things I would like you to do.

First of all, you know your Band will have to march out to the Flag Pole for the raising of the Flag with both Ball Clubs during the Flag raising ceremonies, the Band plays the National Anthem, I suppose you know this number, but in case you do not, please get busy on it. The song is played at a certain tempo also. It is also nice to have such numbers as "Take me out to the Ball Game," "Happy Days are Here Again", etc.

I will no doubt see you again between now and then, but I thought it would not hurt to drop you this line in the meantime.

Very truly yours,